

Pewsey Parish Council

Co-Option Policy

The co-option of a Parish Councillor occurs when a vacancy has arisen and no by-election has been called. A by-election can be called if 10 or more electors make a request to Wiltshire Council within a statutory period (normally 14 days) after the notification of a vacancy.

To ensure that a fair and transparent process is undertaken, the procedure below will be followed by Pewsey Parish Council:

1. On receipt of written confirmation from Wiltshire Council that a by-election has not been requested, the casual vacancy can be filled by means of co-option. The Clerk will:
 - a. Advertise the vacancy on the Council noticeboards, website and social media pages.
 - b. Report to the Council that the Co-Option policy has been initiated.
2. Applicants for Co-Option will be asked to:
 - a. Provide information about themselves by way of completing a short application form or by sending a current CV. (A copy of the application form is attached).
 - b. Confirm their eligibility for the position of Councillor within the statutory rules. (A copy of the Eligibility Form is attached.)
3. Copies of the application forms will be circulated to all Councillors by the Clerk prior to the meeting of the Full Council where the Co-Option will be considered. All such documents will be treated by the Clerk and Councillors as strictly private and confidential.
4. Voting will be according to the statutory requirements, in that, a successful candidate must have received an absolute majority vote of those present and voting. If there are more than two candidates for one vacancy and no one, at the first count, receives a majority of the votes given to the rest, the candidate with the least number of votes will drop out. The remainder must then be put to the vote again. This process must, if necessary, be repeated until an absolute majority is obtained.

Councillors shall vote by secret ballot.

In the case of an equality of votes when only two candidates remain, the Chairman of the meeting will have a second casting vote.

5. After the vote has been concluded, the Chairman will declare the successful candidate duly elected.
